Dale Manson J.P.

(Roseworthy Diploma in Agriculture - 1976)
(Roseworthy Diploma in Agricultural Technology - 1977)
(Master of Applied Science Agriculture – 1998)

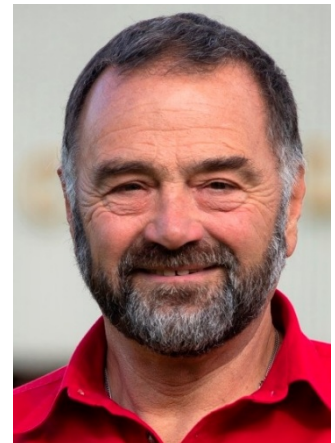

Meritorious service to ROCA and the University Alumni Office

Inducted as ROCA Honorary Life Member - 2001

Dale Manson was elected an Honorary Life Member of the Roseworthy Old Collegians Association at the Association's Annual General Meeting on 26th October 2001.

Dale Manson was honoured with ROCA Honorary Life Membership in 2001 on the basis of:

- Being a strong supporter of ROCA since first joining the Committee in 1978, a period of 23 years;
- As ROCA President during the 1989/1990 period, leading the Association through the unsettling process of Roseworthy Agricultural College's merger with the University of Adelaide;
- Nearly 20 years involvement with the ROCA Digest as editor or in production;
- Taking responsibility for the monitoring and assisting the University Alumni Office to maintain an up-to-date contact list of ROCA members.

Dale Manson graduated from Roseworthy Agricultural College in 1977, spending the following 34 years as a livestock adviser with the SA Department of Primary Industries based at Jamestown and Murray Bridge.

In total (to 2025), he served on the ROCA Committee for 47 years, including five terms as ROCA President. Dale chaired the joint University of Adelaide and ROCA organising committee for the 2008 commemoration of Roseworthy Agricultural College's 125th Anniversary.

He also represented ROCA at the highest level on the influential Vice Chancellor's Alumni Advisory Committee and the University of Adelaide Alumni Council.
