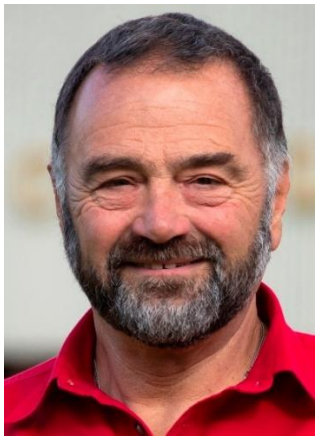
(Roseworthy Diploma in Agricultural Technology – 1977)

(Masters of Applied Science, Agriculture - 1998)



Dale Manson initially joined the ROCA Committee in 1978, representing Roseworthy students who had graduated between one and ten years previously.

Up to 2024, he had been a member of the ROCA Committee for a continuous period of 46 years, including five terms as ROCA President and numerous years as Editor of the ROCA Digest.

As ROCA President during the 1989/1990 period, he led the Association through the unsettling process of Roseworthy Agricultural College's merger with the University of Adelaide.

On behalf of ROCA, he was also a member of the University of Adelaide Vice-Chancellor's influential "Alumni Advisory Committee" and subsequently the University's "Alumni Council".

He also Chaired the Selection Panel of the University of Adelaide's prestigious "Distinguished Alumni Award" for a number of years.

In 2001, ROCA Honorary Life Membership was bestowed on Dale Manson in recognition of "Meritorious Service to the Roseworthy Old Collegians Association".
