The Secretary reported that the total cost of the Bilboard Table was £57-11-9 including all sundries necessary and a light shade £4/15/- . The amount voted by the General Meeting of members was £50.

Moved Mr. Richardson

Seconded Mr Williams.

The Committee sanctions the extra expenditure of £7-11-9.

Carried.

Reunion of Old Collegians.

It was decided to hold the Reunion of members at the College this year. The Reunion to take the form of a Field Day giving members an opportunity of inspecting the College & General Meeting to be held followed by a dinner.

Membership Drive.

This matter was discussed at length and the following suggestions were decided upon:-

(1) A branch secretary be appointed at suitable centres to assist the Secretary and to arrange social gatherings of members.

(2) The President and the Principal of the College to endeavour to meet old students whenever travelling in the country

(3) The Secretary to compile a Register of all Old Students and their addresses and arrange in districts and Circles members advising the object of the drive and appeal to all for their assistance in compiling a record of all ex-students of the College.

Official Opening of the Billiard Table.

The Principal had arranged an informal dinner for the Students and the Committee prior to the opening of the Billiard Room.

Mr A. H. Hearnshaw and Mr J. Goldsmith, two ex. Australian Amateur Billiards Champions were present as guests.

Col. Fulton, as President of the Association, occupied the chair. In an address the President outlined to the students the objects of the Association and appealed for their support after leaving the college. The key of the Billiard Room was handed over to the Student Secretary of the Billiards Committee.

The President ^{officially} opened the Billiard room. Messrs Hearnshaw and Goldsmith gave an excellent demonstration match and an instructive talk on the care and maintenance of the table was given by Mr Hearnshaw.

Mr Richardson thanked the above gentlemen on behalf of the Association. Old Students' Cup.

The Committee approved the expenditure of £3/5/6 for the Cup this year.
Correspondence.

A letter was received from Mr Guy Eastwood reporting the death of Mr M. Eastwood, a Life Member, and enquiring regarding the disposal of ^{the late} Mr Eastwood's Old Collegians' Badge.

The Secretary instructed to write to Mr Eastwood expressing our sympathy and inform him that the medal was the property of the late Mr Eastwood and need not be returned.
