4. College Colours: A reply to the resolution adopted at the Committee Meeting held on November 27th 1937 was received from the Secretary of the Lowworthy Agricultural College Sports Union.

advising that at a general meeting of students it was decided to retain the college colours of pink and black.

In view of this, and the recent improvement in the design of the college blazer, it was decided to advise the general meeting that this matter should be dropped to the mutual satisfaction of the Association and the College.

Also that the design of the Old Collegians blazer be unaltered in view of the failure to change the college colours.

D. Fulton.

Meeting closed.
