Carried

③ Dr. A. R. Callaghan Photo.

Mr. Krause advised the committee that Dr. Callaghan had had his photograph taken at Rembrandt's Studios.

So that some uniformity could be maintained in the design of frames an old photo was taken to the studios for copying purposes. Rembrandt Studios promised to have the photo completed by Speech Day (March 2nd, 1951).

④ David Fulton Memorial.

The secretary advised he had discussed the memorial with the Manager of the College Swimming Committee. This committee had ~~not~~ ~~suggested~~ endeavoured to obtain suitable concrete seats and pundial without success. It was decided to wait until seats were obtainable and leave the memorial in the hands of the Swimming Committee.

Mr Orchard suggested that the Swimming Club should try Killers Lime 67 Weymouth St. as he thought they could supply concrete seats.

Carried.

⑤ Report on South East Branch Re Union.

Mr Mellor reported that a very successful Annual Meeting and Re Union dinner had been held at Maracoot.

Mr R. Bailey had been appointed
