Business Arising From Previous Two Meetings

(a) Roseworthy College Joint Committee

Ross Dawkins commented on the first meeting of this committee which comprises

ATA two reps.

RCCA two reps

Academic Staff one rep

Council two reps

Ancillary Staff two reps

Ian Rice said that as a whole the Joint Committee favours Roseworthy remaining autonomous

The meeting was advised that the academic staff was firmly in favour of the college remaining autonomous.

(b) Sub-committee to Anderson Inquiry

The sub-committee's draft was read to the meeting

John Jones presented his submission.

After some discussion the choice of the two drafts was placed before the meeting.

John Jones submission was selected.

(c) A.G.M.

Resolved that Andy Michelmore would again approach the wineries for donations of wines.

Peter Lewis volunteered to try to get samples of orange and grapefruit juices.

It was decided not to try a 40 year old group or a 2 to 3 year old group.

(d) Unemployment amongst Diplomates.

In view of the reply received from the A.T.A. secretary it was decided not to ~~conduct~~^{initiate} investigations at this stage.

(e) Short courses for R.O.C.A.

Resolved that a letter be sent to Dr Williams stressing the importance of these ~~courses~~ courses and expressing our interest in co-initiating these courses.

Ian Lewis was to be contacted as well, calling ~~for~~^{for} support from the Dept. of Agriculture.
