

ROSEWORTHY OLD COLLECIANS ASSOCIATION COMMITTEE MEETING 5th December 1984 held at Parliament House at 6.30p.m.

1. Harry Stephen welcomed Dale M., Ian R., Jack R., Ken H., Peter L., and Andrew M. Barrie T. had been delayed by a plane trip and arrived later.
2. Apologies were received from all other members: Peter, Reg, Bob, Jay, Jeff and Philip.
3. Business from Minutes:
 - Bridging courses - a letter had been received from Barrie Thistlethwayte and was read at this stage of the meeting. Moved by Peter L., Sec. Dale M. that we write to Barrie and thank him for his reply, and that we send a copy to A.P.A. for their information, and that we publish the reply in the next R.O.C.A. Digest for the information of members. Carried.
 - Following his notice of Motion, Peter L. Moved that we write to the Minister of Education, and ask if we can nominate a member of the Executive Committee of R.O.C.A. as a member of the College Council. Seconded by Ken H. and Carried.
 - A.G.M. venue was discussed. Secretary had spoken to the management of the Renaissance Tower and had been advised that they preferred 200 as the minimum number for a Dinner, but would accept a booking from R.O.C.A. for 180, but we would have to pay for a minimum of 180. Resolved that we confirm the booking for the 1985 A.G.M and Dinner at the Renaissance Tower on 6th Sept. The Dinner to be for Old Students and Spouses and to be publicised as much as possible to encourage attendance.
 - Graduation Award applications had not been received, but some students had spoken to Ian Rice, so we can anticipate some applications.
 - Correspondence courses were discussed. Barrie reported that Correspondence course in Grad. Diploma in Agriculture was available in 1984 and that a course in Wine Marketing would be available in 1986.
 - Letters from Peter Lewis were distributed to all Committee members prior to the meeting. Ian R. reported that the Degree Course had been accredited and appeared to be working well. Peter L. spoke on the subject and thought that the course must be let run for a few years, but that it must be monitored carefully. Resolved no further action at this stage.
4. Correspondence:
 - letter from Reg R. apology for non-attendance.
 - letter from Barrie T. re courses at Roseworthy (dealt with as above)
5. Digest is with printers now and should be ready for posting before Christmas.
 - Barrie to check at R.A.C. re Sales Tax Exemption certificate for printing.
6. Ken suggested that the Mini Diplomas should be issued with a letter explaining the free membership, but stressing that fees go up next year. Resolved to do.
7. Note from Milton Spurling advising of death of Old Student Gordon Sweeney (1917)
8. Harry thanked Peter for his hospitality.
9. Next Meeting to be 6.30 on 19th Feb at Parliament House.
10. Meeting closed 8.50 p.m.
